

Hotel Koo Otsu Hyakucho

Hotel Koo Otsu Hyakucho is a contemporary stay in Otsu, near Kyoto and Lake Biwa, woven into a vibrant local community. Seven buildings, each over 100 years old, form a decentralized “town as hotel” concept. As part of an effort to support the community, the hotel does not serve dinner, instead it steers guests to nearby restaurants, while guided tours will connect you to the area’s culture, crafts, and everyday life.
