

La Purificadora

Reimagining a late 19th-century water purification factory, La Purificadora blends raw and refined elements, showcasing the structure's rich past. Situated in the heart of Puebla, renowned for its culinary history and colonial architecture, this Mexican gem presents contemporary, intimate dining and boasts a serene spa with rejuvenating massage treatments. Discover a stunning stairway, a rooftop terrace, and an artist-rendered 30-meter pool in a world that seamlessly merges history with modern luxury.
