

ARRIVE Palm Springs

Behold a midcentury-modern poolside haven of cabanas, fire pits, ping pong, and bocce ball in Palm Springs' Uptown Design District. Guests are surrounded by design that reinterprets desert modernism through vibrant color, vintage-inspired furnishings, and artwork by Jamie Kowal. At the center of it all, a 42-foot-long pool and hot tub anchor the property's easygoing, social spirit—and it's all just steps from the district's boutiques and galleries.
