

The Ludlow Hotel

Nestled on the Lower East Side between the Bowery and the East River, The Ludlow Hotel adds a loft-like feel to the bustle of New York City. Suites connect to an outdoor terrace that lets guests enjoy breakfast amid the city skyline, while the lobby lounge's limestone fireplace infuses the space with intimate charm. Your clients will enjoy evenings with reinterpreted French cuisine and wine at the hotel's New York-style bistro, and explore the vibrancy of the area during the day.
