

Dorset Square Hotel

Firmdale's Dorset Square Hotel is a pioneering property in London's Marylebone, reacquired and refurbished in Kit Kemp's bold and eclectic signature style. This regal property sits on the verdant corner of Marylebone's Dorset Square, site of Thomas Lord's original cricket ground. Housed in two combined Regency townhouses, the hotel has been updated with Kit Kemp's fresh contemporary English point of view. Inside, 38 bedrooms adorned with items from Kemp's global travels span five floors, many of them overlooking tranquil private gardens.
