

sala bang pa-in

Set on a secluded river island near the historic Bang Pa-In Royal Palace, sala bang pa-in is a one-of-a-kind design-led retreat on the Chao Phraya River, just under an hour from Bangkok—yet a world away. Award-winning contemporary Thai architecture by Department of ARCHITECTURE frames river views through layered roofs and courtyards. The hotel's intimate scale supports full-property buyouts, private river cruises, and a dedicated Heritage Menu rooted in Ayutthaya's culinary history. — see more
