

Tsingpu Yangzhou Retreat

A lyrical concrete tale retold, Tsingpu Yangzhou Retreat is Neri & Hu's fresh take on traditional Chinese architecture. In a sublime natural setting of lakes, guests can lose themselves to the timelessness of the land. One indulges socially as much as in culinary excellence at the hotel's restaurant. Here, guests can partake in cooking classes and dine on organic dishes at long, communal tables that break down walls between strangers and create a community among travelers. — see more
