

Yoruya

Yoruya is nestled in a 110-year-old renovated cultural asset harmoniously paired with a new contemporary building in the Kurashiki Bikan Historical Quarter. Blending heritage and modernity, this “culinary inn” invites guests to experience Kurashiki’s spirit through food and atmosphere. Yoruya’s cuisine follows Japan’s 24 solar terms and 72 micro-seasons, reflecting the land’s subtle transitions. Here, both the restaurant and in-room experience are celebrated, creating an intimate journey through Kurashiki’s culture, time, and taste.
