

Hôtel Borsari

Set in the historic Swiss town of Martigny, Hôtel Borsari blends Brutalist minimalism with midcentury warmth and local character. Surrounded by vineyards, Roman ruins, and Alpine trails, the hotel features color-themed floors, a central cobblestone courtyard, and converted 19th-century wine tanks repurposed as thermal baths. On-site dining includes a restaurant serving locally sourced cuisine, a wine and charcuterie bar, and a garden-facing café offering light, healthy fare.
